Traditional luxury can be purchased. The luxury you'll discover at The Buckingham can only be felt.

"What makes The Buckingham special is its people. This place is full of people who are living remarkable, noteworthy lives ... every person here has a story to tell."

— Phillip Taylor, Marketing and Sales Director

Traditional luxury appeals to your refined sense of taste. Exceptional luxury does something more meaningful — it fires your heart. At The Buckingham, we've never been satisfied with merely following the traditional path, just like the individuals with Texas-sized ambitions and accomplishments who call this community home.

Welcome to life at The Buckingham.

From the moment you step through the gates of our beautifully manicured 23 acres in Houston's coveted Memorial neighborhood, you'll discover something beautiful in every corner. But as you immerse yourself in life here, you'll discover something more profound — the warmth of gracious people who care deeply for you, and the joy of being surrounded by individuals with the energy and imagination to reimagine senior living.

Luxury that feels like home.

Even if the amenities at The Buckingham were merely equal to other senior living communities, they'd still be superior — thanks to the thoughtful and supportive way each one is delivered.

We don't simply have a state-of-the-art fitness center, for instance. Our fitness center puts you in the company of both trainers who know you and want the best for you, and fellow fitness seekers who have a lifetime of reaching for more.

Luxury that greets you with open arms.

Likewise, our business center isn't just a place to hold a Zoom meeting or print out a spreadsheet. It's a place where deals are made, and fortunes are changed.

And so it goes, from unequaled dining and unending activities to personal housekeeping and on-site performances, it's all made better by the relationships that are at the core of everything that happens here.

> "Our culinary team's knowledge and passion create a 5-star dining experience through both cuisine and elevated hospitality."

> > – Steven McCracken, Executive Chef

"It's so far above anything we'd seen before. You will be blown away by the possibilities for an exciting life."

– Philip Baker, Buckingham resident

You didn't reach the heights of professional success and personal satisfaction by accident. We're guessing you had a plan. Here at The Buckingham, we have a program for success too. It's called Aspyre. And while we call it a program, it's really more of a lifestyle philosophy that is woven into literally everything that makes The Buckingham the best in senior living.

Think of any aspect of life here — relationships, wellness, learning, dining, fun, amenities — and it's made richer by Aspyre.

The powerful idea at the heart of The Buckingham experience.

Aspyre is why our dining options are without equal, why every day is filled with entertainment offerings, clubs, social events, open houses and cultural opportunities and why you're always greeted with a smile and an offer to do whatever is necessary to make your day better. Our unique Aspyre program is what attracts exceptional people and why the relationships you make here are so deep and meaningful.

Simply put, Aspyre is why life here feels richer. Best of all, Aspyre isn't something that happens to residents at The Buckingham. It's driven — and created — by the people who live here, so it reflects your passions as well as those of your friends and neighbors.

"When we first walked in here I honestly thought 'I'm home'."

– Mike and Caps Jamison

With all there is to do and experience — right outside your door or right around the corner in Houston — it can be easy to forget that The Buckingham is also your home. Fortunately, we haven't forgotten. With 29 floor plans to choose from, you're certain to find the apartment home that suits your needs and reflects your taste.

Regardless of which apartment you choose, your home will feature walk-in closets, a full kitchen, a balcony, room to entertain, and a powerful feeling of comfort and security (which makes The Buckingham the perfect "lock and leave" home when you have other places to visit).

Inspiration you can measure in square feet.

Best of all, you'll not only be surrounded by the luxury you desire, but more importantly, by neighbors who share the qualities you cherish — like curiosity, energy, open hearts, an eagerness to learn and grow, and a desire to get the most from life.

- · Interior and exterior maintenance
- Personal weekly housekeeping

Once you've discovered the joys of living — truly, deeply, happily living — at The Buckingham, you'll be relieved to know that as a Life Plan Community, The Buckingham is prepared to care for you on-site if your health needs change.

We offer the full continuum of care — independent living, assisted living, skilled nursing, memory care and rehab services — right here on our campus. And with our popular Life Care Contract, it's all available for one predictable monthly price.

Putting peace of mind at the heart of your future.

Just as our amenities and services are delivered with a level of compassion and keen interest in your well-being, so too is the healthcare you'll receive with on-site registered nurses available 24/7. You'll also have the comfort of knowing you won't be a burden to your children because you've arranged for the care you might need in advance.

As with all aspects of life here, Life Plan empowers you to live the life you've imagined all while being in the place you'll quickly call home.

"Don't wait too long. Do it for your family. But more importantly, do it for yourself. It's a gift you give yourself."
